

773.342.2229

HARMFUL HOUSEHOLD PRODUCTS

Here is a list of common household products that should be kept out of child's reach.

acids	epsom salts
adhesives	fabric softener aerosol cans	face cream aftershave	felt-tip markers air freshners	fertilizers alcoholic beverages	fire salts ammonia	flaking or peeling paint anti freeze	flavoring extracts antiseptic salves and ointments	flea powder arts & crafts supplies	furniture polish automatic dishwasher detergent	gasoline automotive products, (includes waxes & engine fluids)	grease remover bathub & tile cleaners	hair tonics batteries	ink
birth control pills	insulation bleach	kerosene boric acid	lawn treated with chemicals bubble bath, bath oils & bath salts	laxatives charcoal fire starter	lead pencils cigarettes & cigars	lighter fluids cleaning solution	lime & quicklime cleansers	liniment
cologne & perfume	lye
cooking wine	matches
cosmetics	meat tenderizer denture cleaner	medicine detergent	metal cleaners disinfectant	mothballs, flakes & sprays drain cleaner	camphor dry-cleaning fluid	mouthwash dye	nail polish & remover ointments & wipes

oven cleaner	scouring powder over the counter medicines, aspirin	shampoo & hair rinse paint stripper	shoe polish paint thinner	skin lotions paint, stains & varnishes	stain remover pens	suntan lotion & oil permanent-wave preparations	soap & soap powders peroxide	sulfuric acid (for car batteries) pesticides & herbicides	swimming pool chemicals pet food	tobacco pet medicine & vitamins	toilet bluer petroleum products	toilet cleaner plant seeds & bulbs	turpentine powders, including baby, face or body	toothpicks plant food & fertilizers	typewriter correction fluid prescription medicines	vinegar prewash treatments	vitamins & minerals (especially iron) rodent & insect poisons	wart remover rust removers	water softener salt razors & blades	weed killer rug cleaners	window cleaner seasoning salts	wood preservatives shaving cream

Please remember, when locking medicines away include iron tablets, as they are the #1 cause of child poisoning.